. . the enforcement authority may issue a summons or order to correct the violation, in which case the person shall be given the opportunity to correct the violation without a citation. . . . 2. If the Codes Compliance Official finds no violation . . . the enforcement authority shall either issue a citation or order to correct the violation as appropriate. A person receiving a citation from a Codes Compliance Official, other than an Administrator, may not contest or contest any additional charge to the property or citation before the City Council. The city recognizes that lack of funding is a legitimate consideration in establishing Codes compliance. As such, this ordinance makes specific provision for a voluntary payment schedule that would allow the owner to secure payment within a reasonable time frame and not unreasonably restrict the public's access to public property. References See also

Major depressive disorder (MDD) is a chronic condition that often affects older women. Previous studies have reported that women with MDD have an increased risk for fractures. The purpose of this study was to examine the prevalence of osteoporosis in older women with MDD and to explore predictors of osteoporosis in this group. Using International Classification of Diseases, Ninth Revision, Clinical Modification codes, we identified 437 (out of 746) older women with MDD (age range 60-

Events in the world take place in the near future, namely in the year 2285. By this time, humanity has been almost completely enslaved by a new form of life - aliens from outer space, which are called Predators. People were forced to leave planet Earth for safety reasons and move into outer space. On the surface of the planets of the solar system there was only one planet suitable for habitation.

Humans founded their colonies there, and named such a planet Terra Nova, after Earth. fffad4f19a
