The Infidel will be in demand because, for the most part, it is the most brutally honest book out there on the arguments for and against Islam. The Infidel was written in reaction to the books written by bestselling author, Bat Ye'or, who labels them as "intellectual suicide" and "political and religious poison". The Infidel has been deemed by many to be the ultimate debate book for the 21st century because of its comprehensive analysis of the historical background and current practices of Islam. The book will also be important for students studying the History of Islam and for those who wish to understand the Islamic world and Muslim public opinion. There will also be a discussion of the arguments in the book, and the responses of many leading scholars. Around 80% of the book has been written, with additional sections yet to be added. The Introduction will come out of the remaining 20% to be written. The book is set to be published early next year by Prospect Books.
